THE TRAINING PROCESS

Initial consultation with Training Manager/Course participant(s)

Pre-course language needs analysis and assessment

Careful pre-course planning and design

Delivery of structured and highly practical language training

Monitoring and reporting of progress at regular intervals

Regular observation of the training to ensure motivation throughout

Final report on completion of training